

U.S. LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES FINANCIAL STRENGTH RATINGS: Q1 2023

ALL CLIENT POLICIES ARE UNDERWRITTEN BY TOP-TIER LIFE INSURANCE PROVIDERS

WESTWARD'S VIEW

From time to time, Canadian life insurance applicants are unable to obtain a life insurance offer from a Canadian insurer. A possible solution is to approach the U.S. life insurance market for an offer.

The U.S. market is significantly larger and more competitive, and will often make offers when none are forthcoming from the Canadian market.

The process for a Canadian to acquire a life insurance policy from a U.S. insurer is involved and typically requires the creation of a U.S. trust to hire a U.S. broker to help acquire the policy and then distribute it from the trust to the Canadian beneficiary.

Westward's Performance Optimizer manages life insurance plans for several clients who own life insurance policies issued by U.S. insurers. This Viewpoint summarizes the current financial strength ratings of our clients' U.S. insurers. The financial strength of life insurance companies is regularly assessed by trusted credit rating organizations. Westward monitors these assessments to ensure that our clients' life insurance policies are backed by top-tier providers.
